

MRS. JAS. CARLIN
... New President

Mrs. Carlin Named Club President

Mrs. James Carlin, 722 Acacia Ave., has been elected to the presidency of the Nativity Mothers club for the school year 1961-62. She succeeds Mrs. Clayton Bowen.

Mrs. Carlin is an active member of the Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, the Altar society and the Bishop Montgomery Mothers club.

A native of Colorado, she has lived in Torrance for the past 25 years. Mrs. Carlin is the mother of two daughters, Cynthia attending Bishop Montgomery and Ramona, a Nativity school student.

Named to serve with Mrs. Carlin at the June 14 meeting were Meses Gilbert Bihn, first vice president; William Korchensky, second vice president; Richard Thompson, secretary and James O'Brien, treasurer.

Mrs. William Hardesty, retiring treasurer, presented members of the outgoing board with gifts of appreciation for their year's work.

Open House Celebrates Occasions

An open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Eldredge at 1740 Greenwood Ave. on Tuesday evening, June 13, following graduation exercises at Bishop Montgomery High school celebrated the graduation of the couple's daughter, Sandra, who was also celebrating her 18th birthday. The party also marked the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Eldredge.

A beautifully decorated cake in green, yellow and white, one part denoting the birthday and the other graduation, was served with coffee and other refreshments.

Among the guests attending the party were Messrs. and Meses. Ed Standifer, Jim Standifer, Robert Klaesgas, A. R. Barney, Jim McClain, Warren Eldredge, Jr., Eugene Egbert.

Others were Meses. Sam Boice, Tilley Dikus, Sam Van Wagner.

Also Diane Barney, Geraldine Dikus, Cathy and Irene Barney.

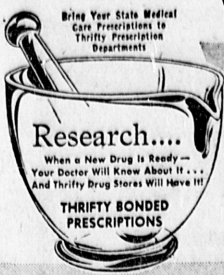

A Farewell Fetes Diane

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curdeau and family, 1563 W. 213th St., are moving this week to Rhode Island to make their home.

Diane Curdeau was honored at a farewell party given on Saturday, June 17, by a group of her 7th grade classmates at Nativity School. The party was held at the home of Barbara Olson, 2554 Sonoma St.

Games were played, followed by refreshments. The girls presented Diane with a farewell gift.

Attending were Denise Landerville, Cecilia Cletcher, Helen McDonald, Rita Turcotte, Margaret Buffalo, Patty Lienweber, Laurie Young, Linda Bruggeman and Theresa Nino. Barbara Bryant was unable to attend.
